TENNENBAUM CAPITAL PARTNERS WELCOMES JOHN MENDELL

LOS ANGELES, Calif. – Tennenbaum Capital Partners, LLC (“TCP”), an alternative investment management firm, is pleased to announce that John Mendell has joined TCP as a Director based in the firm’s Los Angeles office. Mendell will focus on developing and enhancing the firm’s current and prospective institutional investor relationships.

“John brings a wealth of experience in fund marketing and business development across the United States and Canada that will augment TCP’s growing global investor relations team,” said Lee Landrum, a TCP Partner. “We are pleased to welcome John to the team and look forward to his contributions to the continued success of our firm.”

Mendell was previously a principal with Ares Management, where he was responsible for business development with North American institutional investors and consultants. Prior to Ares, he was a Director with Camden Asset Management, responsible for client service and marketing. Mendell earned his MBA from the UCLA Anderson School of Business and a BA from Yale University.
